

Fraud, Waste, and Abuse mandatory Provider training now online!

The mandatory Fraud, Waste and Abuse training presentation is now online on Keystone First's recently launched dedicated web page addressing fraud, waste, abuse and mandatory screening information.

The training can be accessed at www.keystonefirstpa.com→Provider→Resources→Manuals, guides and training→Fraud, Waste, Abuse and Mandatory Screening Information. Please note after you have completed the training, complete the attestation at www.surveymonkey.com/r/9MQ7S8F.

Other topics included on the site are:

- Information on Screening Employees for Federal Exclusion
- How to report fraud to Keystone First
- How to return improper or over-payments to Keystone First

Fraud Tip Hotline

If you or any entity with which you contract to provide healthcare services on behalf of Keystone First become concerned about or identify potential fraud or abuse, please contact us by:

- Calling the toll-free Fraud, Waste and Abuse hotline at 1-866-833-9718.
- Emailing fraudtip@amerihealthcaritas.com
- Mailing a written statement to:

Special Investigations Unit

Keystone First

200 Stevens Drive

Philadelphia, PA 19113

For more information about medical fraud and abuse, please visit the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services' website at www.dhs.pa.gov.